2. Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

- The prevention, detection and reporting of modern slavery in any part of the Trust or supply chain is the responsibility of all those working for us, or on our behalf. Workers will not engage in, facilitate or fail to report any activity that might lead to, or suggest, a breach of policy.
- We expect the same high standards from our suppliers and those we work with.
- Appropriate due diligence must be carried out based on a risk assessment relevant to a sector or country, the type of sector in which the service provider operates, the countries from which the services are provided, the nature of suppliers and the complexity of the supply chains.
- The Trust utilises a number of procurement processes which have made and published statements regarding slavery and human trafficking.
- The Trust has developed standard contract clauses which are being rolled out into its standard terms and conditions.
- We protect whistle-blowers within our organisation, and should any evidence of slavery or human trafficking become apparent to us, we will do all in our power, as is laid out in our Whistleblowing policy, found on our website to investigate any concerns.

3. Our Commitment

- We endeavour to ensure that slavery and human trafficking have no place in our Trust or our supply chain.
- This statement has been approved by the Trust's Senior Leadership Team and will be reviewed annually by the Audit and Risk Committee.
- This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our Trust's slavery and human trafficking statement for the year ending 31 August 2026.
